Reasons for requesting a Fast Track Appeal

Costs and fees associated with Fast Track Appeals

This application must be accompanied by the appropriate prescribed Fast Track fee and the appropriate application form and application fees.

The prescribed fee for the making of a fast track appeal is referred to in Regulation 1602 of the Building Regulations 2006. Alternatively, refer to the website or contact the Building Appeals Board support staff to obtain the prescribed fee.

A fast track appeal may be made under Division 1 Part 10 of the Building Act 1993 any party to the appeal may request a fast track appeal.

In making this application, you are confirming that you understand that the Board may grant or refuse the request, and that if the Board grants the request, it may require you, as the person who made the request, to pay:-

The reasonable costs (as assessed by the Board) of all parties to the appeal (including the costs of legal advice and/or representation) for the proceedings after the request is granted (Section 147(3)(a)); and

If the Board hears the Appeal, an additional prescribed fee for the time taken for the hearing (including any adjourned hearing) excluding the first 2 hours of the hearing (Section 147 (3)(b)).

PLEASE NOTE: If the application is not complete the appeal process will be delayed.
